A: KSCAD is another option. But it is not for mobile devices. KSCAD is also free to use. Children's Museum of Indianapolis Details for Children's Museum of Indianapolis Children's Museum of Indianapolis the site that houses the 1,300,000 square foot Children's Museum of Indianapolis is located in Indianapolis on 317 East 8th Street Indianapolis, Indiana. The Children's Museum of Indianapolis is a place that will have your child engaged, learning and playing for hours. When visiting your kids have fun at this site you will see that the Museum has two major sections, the Exploratorium & Character's The Exploratorium is a large section that was designed to take your child on a journey, a journey of discovering the world, the nature and where we came from. Where we are now, and what we will be like in the future. This is a place where they will discover the world they live in and how it came to be. Here they will learn about energy, gravity, the sun, the planets, etc. The Character's is the area where they play out their imagination with other children and adults alike. You will see with the Imagination Station the Child can be a pilot, a police officer, fireman, firefighter, you name it they can experience. However the main attraction in the Museum is the large pool of water that can hold up to 1000 kids. Here they can play in the water, climb the pool walls, slide down the water falls, sink or float. The Children's Museum of Indianapolis also has a large outdoor Education area that is a walking trail, a small pond, and many birds. This is a great place for your kids to be able to sit and be mesmerized by nature. Here are a few tips when visiting the Children's Museum: If you plan on visiting the Museum when the weather is warm outside wait until the fall or winter season to visit. It will be the best time for your kids and for you. If you have a child that is scared of heights the Exploratorium is not the best place for them. If your child is more of a fireman than a policeman don't bring him or her to the Explorer's Station. Also do not bring your kids to the Character's as there are too many other groups of children to play with. This is a site that you can visit time after time 595f342e71
